Byers Appointed Defense Chairman

The board of selectmen announced Tuesday the appointment of Douglas S. Byers of Phillips Street as chairman of the local public safety committee. He succeeds Atty. Alan T. Polgreen, who resigned prior to being inducted into the armed forces.

Mr. Byers has been chairman of the services and supplies division since the present civilian defense organization was formed early in the year, and directed the distribution and tabulating the results of the fuel oil questionnaires recently.

He is director of the Robert S. Peabody foundation for archaeology at Phillips Academy.

The following letter was sent to Mr. Byers by Howard L. Jenkins, Director of State Defense Region 4:

"Dear Mr. Byers:

"The Board of Selectmen of the Town of Andover has nominated you for chairman of the committee on public safety in Andover.

"By authority vested in me by His Excellency, the Governor, and J. Wells Farley, executive director, I hereby appoint you chairman for the Andover committee on public safety.

"I sincerely trust that you will let nothing interfere with this public service, and that you will notify me immediately of your acceptance."

Phillips To Open Term Next Week

Body-Building, War
Courses Stressed

Phillips Academy will open its 165th year next week with a school program placing heavy emphasis on body-building and studies related to the war effort. Despite war conditions, the student body is expected to be about as large as that of last year.

For the first time in the history of the school, resident students will be expected to take care of their own rooms and personal belongings, and they will be organized in squads to do certain work around the school grounds. A similar program met with considerable success during the special summer session recently concluded.

Physical education has been compulsory at Phillips before this year, but all related programs will be intensified. The full athletic schedule previously planned for the whole year will be carried out in its entirety. All students will participate in 14 different sports.

Special war courses introduced during the last school year will be taught this year on a more advanced basis. They will include first aid, navigation, communication.

Vote Here Lightest

J. Everett Collins, Andover's only candidate in Tuesday's primaries, was renominated by a handsome vote as one of the three Republican candidates for representative in General Court from the Fourth Essex district. Throughout the district, Mr. Collins received 2040 votes, to 1977 for Ralph H. Hill, 2088 for Alyce L. Schlapp and 1837 for Carl A. Woekel. Herbert B. Bower, the only Democratic candidate for nomination, received 1443 votes.

Mr. Collins was a natural favorite in Andover, where he received a total of 893 votes, to 458 for Mr. Hill, 503 for Mrs. Schlapp and 261 for Mr. Woekel. He led the ticket

The Tyer Rubber company will receive the Army-Navy Production award next Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 at its Andover plant. The ceremony will be marked by the participation of Governor Leverett Saltonstall and high officers of the Army and Navy.

If the weather is clear, the ceremony will take place in the large parking space at the plant's north end. In the event of rain, the Town has offered the use of the Memorial auditorium.

The award, symbolized by the red, white and blue pennant and pins for the company employees, will be conferred by Col. J. S. Seybold of the Chief of Engineers office, War Department, Washington, D. C., and Lt. Comdr. C. C. Pyne of the First Naval District.

His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, Leverett Saltonstall, will be present to address the employees and their guests. Roy F. Williams, general manager of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, will act as master of ceremonies.

Plan Sendoff For Inductees Tomorrow

Andover residents are invited to give a rousing send-off to the large group of inductees who will leave for active duty in the armed forces tomorrow morning. At 10:00, a parade will leave the town hall for the railroad station, led by the American Legion's color guard and junior bugle and drum corps. Police Chief George A. Dane has promised to furnish traffic regulation by his department, and School Superintendent Edward I. Erickson will allow the band members time out from their studies. It is hoped that a large representation of townspeople will be on hand to make it a memorable occasion.

It will be remembered that a similar demonstration was given to the first two inductees to leave Andover, nearly two years ago. Since that was meant as a token honor, the practice was discontinued, and no move was made to resume it. Tomorrow's parade will inaugurate a policy which will be in effect as

To all War Bond Workers:

The impression seems to have spread that I regard the voluntary War Bond program as a "failure." This is not only a distortion of anything I have said on the subject but it is also an injustice to the hundreds of thousands of devoted volunteers in all parts of the country who are working night and day to enlist the Nation's savings for the war.

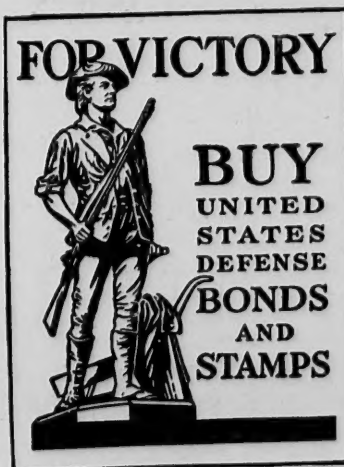

In view of our swiftly rising war expenditures I have said that the voluntary War Bond program alone cannot close the gap between the amount of money available for consumer spending and the supply of goods available for civilian use. I have said that it must therefore be supplemented by a more drastic and comprehensive tax program, including a tax on spendings, a part of which would be treated as a debt to the taxpayer and repaid after the war. We shall, however, continue to rely upon voluntary lending for a large part of our financing.

The mounting requirements of the war demand that our sale of War Bonds be continued and intensified. As I said to the Senate Finance Committee last week, it is my belief that the voluntary War Bond program has produced and will continue to produce a great contribution to the Nation's war effort. Regardless of the other measures that are needed, the voluntary savings program will be essential until the war is won.

To our hundreds of thousands of War Bond volunteers, I should like to say that the Nation is counting on them more than ever to carry on the magnificent work in which they are so unselfishly engaged.

by nearly 40 votes in North Andover, and was well supported in Methuen and Lawrence's single ward.

Only about 19 percent of the registered voters in Andover turned out for the primaries, one of the lightest votes here in many years. There were 956 Republican votes cast, against 212 Democratic.

In other major contests on the Andover ballots, Lawrence Curtis of Boston won more Republican votes for state treasurer than all his opponents combined; Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was better than eight to one over Courtenay Crocker; and James D. Bentley received 545 votes to 327 for C. F. Nelson Pratt.

On the Democratic side, Roger L. Putnam received 122 votes to 80 for Francis X. Kelly for governor; Francis X. Hurley beat the total of his three opponents for the nomination for treasurer; and Joseph E. Casey was well ahead of John F. Fitzgerald in the senatorial race. Hugh A. Cregg, unopposed on the Democratic ticket, received 91 Republican votes here to 55 for Coan and 49 for Harrington.

TAKE GOOD CARE OF THE THINGS YOU HAVE

YOUR GAS RANGE
a reliable economical servant

Keep all burners clean. They will serve more dependably and economically. A clean oven prevents excess smoking. Wash it often. The sparkling porcelain-enamel finish of your range may be preserved by wiping it frequently with a damp cloth.

How to clean the top burners

If flame ports become clogged, clean with stiff brush or by inserting wire. When necessary, use mild cleanser — rinse with clear water — dry thoroughly. Clean pilot with soft wire brush. Wash burner tray frequently.

TOP BURNER COOKING

Try waterless cooking of vegetables to retain more of the essential food values, as well as natural flavor, color and shape. 1. Use pans with close-fitting lids. 2. Use as little water as possible. 3. Do not stir. 4. Turn gas flame high until steam appears. 5. Turn to low and finish cooking.

Flag-Raising Ceremony Held At Central Schools

Witnessed by more than 1000 pupils of the grammar schools and the high and junior high school grades, an impressive flag-raising ceremony was held Monday morning at the flagpole in front of the John Dove school. The program had been successively planned for last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, but had been postponed because of rain until this week.

Chairman Frederick C. Smith of the school committee and School Superintendent Edward I. Erickson offered remarks during the course of the program, and, following the raising of the flag by Fred Nowell and Charles Flannigan, students at Punchard, a mass salute to the flag was given by those present. The Punchard Girls' band, under the leadership of Miss Miriam Sweeney, played the Star Spangled Banner and two marches.

New South Church Organist Has Had Wide Experience

During the past two weeks, South church parishioners have had a chance to observe and approve the work of their new choir director and organist, Weston L. Brannen of Stoneham. Mr. Brannen has had wide experience in the field of church music, having been organist and choir director at the Lynnfield center Congregational church and the Mystic Congregational church, Medford, before coming to Andover.

He has been a musician from the age of seven, and is an accomplished pianist and cellist. He studied at the New England Conservatory of Music and was a member of its orchestra for many years. He studied organ with Homer Humphries in Boston, and in the school of music at Boston University. For many years he confined his work to music, being director of the Hotel Puritan orchestra in Boston and the Ben Mere Inn orchestra in Sunapee, N. H., and cellist with the state symphony orchestra. He is a member of the American Guild of Organists.

Mr. Brannen is also a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, class of 1932, and is now in charge of one of the laboratories of the General Electric Company. He makes his home in Stoneham.

year's games is as follows: September 26, Concord, at Concord; October 3, Danvers, at Andover; October 10, Reading, at Reading; October 17, Winchester, at Winchester;

A. Russell Mack, supervisor of secondary education in Massachusetts, has rated Punchard high school in Class A for the year 1942. This means that Punchard has the highest rating that the state gives. Also, the colleges that permit entrance by certificate have placed Punchard on the approved list.
There are no other agencies of importance which have the authority to grade schools in our state. We have just cause to be proud of our high school.

* * *

This year the classes in Physical Education are to be more intensive than they have been for many years. Although a physical director for the boys has not, as yet, been obtained, the program will go on as planned under the direction of Miss Collins and Miss Robinson for the girls, and Mr. Kishon, our former teacher and football coach, for the boys, until he begins his duties at Phillips Academy. The program, although much the same as that of last year, will be taken more seriously by teachers and pupils alike because of present war conditions.

* * *

Punchard welcomes several new pupils this year: Seniors: Donald O'Connor from Central Catholic high school, Lawrence; Dorothy Young from Northfield seminary,
East Northfield. Juniors: Ruth Martin from Hannah More academy, Reistertown, Maryland; Gertrude Walker and William McKay from Johnson high, North Andover; Jeremiah Carney from Hopkins academy, Hadley; Ruth Whitford from Melrose high; Virginia Wood from Woodbury high school, Salem.
N. H. Sophomores: Raymond Lloyd from Lawrence high school; Edith Lawrence from Coleman high school, Grenville; John Edmunds from Essex Aggie; Janette Easton from Gillespie community high school, Gillespie, Ill.

* * *

The first class meetings of the year were held Friday. The Seniors elected the following officers: John Henderson, president; Gilbert Hamlin, vice-president; Rita Lynch, secretary; Jeanne Gregory, treasurer; Jacqueline Verrette, chairman of the social committee. The committee will consist of the following members: President John Henderson, Katherine O'Riordan, Richard Steinert, Donald Look, John Markey, Ted Escholtz, Helen Gordon and Jean Gilfoy.

William Monroe was elected president of the Junior class, other officers being Gordon Robb, vice-president; Russell MacLeish, secretary; Anthony Babicki, treasurer; George Craig, social committee chairman. The sophomore class also had a meeting, in charge of Mr.
Lovely, but no officers were elected at that time.

Andover Man Gets New Army Rating

An Andover man, Timothy A. McCarthy, is among the first five recipients of the new technician third grade rating in the 10th Coast Artillery, U. S. Army. In ranking and pay, the new grade is equivalent to that of a staff sergeant.

He has meanwhile attended three extension schools in intelligence, artillery mathematics and radio direction, and expects to leave soon for an officers' school at Camp Davis, N. C.

Another member of the regiment, Corporal John Cederberg of Shawsheen, was one of 20 volunteers from his battery to serve as transport guards, and he travelled thousands of miles in the past six months.

Some of the Pleasantries must go

FOR THE DURATION

"SHE never should have opened that hand with a heart lead" — "Wasn't yesterday a terrible day?" — "Looks like a real offensive in the Pacific" — "I'll let June go to the Saturday night dance if your Carol can go with her" — "Did you get enough sugar for canning?"

These and a thousand other pleasantries make up the friendly pattern of American life. They are the subjects of many of the one hundred million telephone calls made every day. In normal times they are the life-blood of the telephone industry which employs 400,000 people.

In war time they hamper production and jeopardize security. For the switchboards over which these pleasantries pass are the ones over which go the orders and instructions for the building of ships, the transporting of troops, the dispatch of aircraft, the supplying of munitions of war, the functioning of civil and military authority.

Certainly, the interchange of friendly conversation helps morale, and there's room for a little of it on telephone lines and switchboards. But "little" is the word. If your own family exceeds that "little," you have an opportunity to speed war communications by cutting down on non-essential calling. Will you help?

NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

Editorials

Negative Merits

We hope this editorial isn't necessary. We hope that a recount will show that Mr. Bentley was actually the victor over C. F. Nelson Pratt for the Republican nomination for county commissioner.

But just in case the recount doesn't affect the ultimate result, just in case Mr. Pratt emerges the winner by the narrow—and significant—margin of nine votes, the voters of Essex county would do well to spend a little time investigating the qualifications of Mr. Conway, the Democratic party's nominee. And if they find that Mr. Conway has anything at all to recommend him to the position, he is a better man than Mr. Pratt for the office. The experience of the past few years, combined with Mr. Pratt's previous record in public life, demonstrates conclusively that all his merits are negative ones.

It was a narrow squeak for Mr. Pratt this time, and the reason was that more and more Republicans are getting on to him. He has won public office before, because he has had the support of two groups: (1) the Republicans who do not carefully judge the candidates but blindly assume that anything Republican is all right; and (2) those voters of any stripe who seem to cling to the type of loud-mouthed politician who likes to spend the public's money irresponsibly.

Those who voted for Mr. Bentley this time should continue their good record and vote for Mr. Conway, unless of course Bentley wins in the recount. It will mean Republicans voting for a Democrat, but party means absolutely nothing in county elections, and certainly in no election should consideration of party make voters choose a man who is an absolute misfit.

Dictatorship of Apathy

We do have a dictatorship in Democracy. It's the dictatorship of apathy. It runs our government in many, many instances.

Take Tuesday's election for instance. A man was running for re-election as district attorney, and his name was on both the Democratic and Republican tickets. On the Democratic, he had opponents; on the Republican, he was unopposed. The latter he won, the former he nearly won, and if there's any reason why Hugh A. Cregg was renominated, it was because voters just don't care.

Here in Andover we thought that conditions in the City of Lawrence as revealed by the recent court action were disgraceful—but we were not surprised at the revelations. We knew that some of the office-holders over there were not above committing unlawful acts; we knew that there was job-selling. We all knew, everybody in Lawrence knew, everybody in North Andover knew, and everybody in Methuen, but one man, knew. That man made his home in Methuen and had an office in Lawrence, and he was just about the only person who had never heard about political malfeasance in Lawrence. Somehow those little rumors just seemed to veer away from him, and him alone.

They even got as far as Boston. The attorney-general even heard about them, and being a good attorney-general, he decided to investigate the stories. He sent the state police, and they found out a lot of things. Some of Lawrence's office-holders are now in jail; others have paid pretty stiff fines. Others were lucky. All the prosecution was conducted by the attorney-general's staff. In district attorney Cregg's district, he was just an onlooker, when he, had he done his job right, would have been, and should have been, the prosecutor.

But we may have him for another term. Why? Because nobody was enough interested in good government to do a little work to get somebody else elected. In the Republican party nobody was enough interested to get some good candidate to enter the race against Cregg.

Primaries ARE important, terribly important. And the period before the primaries is important, too. It's time we realized that; it's time somebody developed a good government organization that would see that capable candidates enter the race and are elected.

Communication

6 Highland road

To the Editor:

Many people have been asked to volunteer their services as much-needed air raid wardens for the town. Some have responded. Others are inconvenienced by the war and simply "aren't interested," or guess they'll leave the job to the town.

No one can afford not to be interested. The town is simply the united efforts of all its citizens. Whatever job each citizen does in civilian defense is far more than service to some one else, it is service to himself and his family. Andover, in general, realizes this. At least one thousand of its citizens are in civilian defense. Many others have responsibilities that take their full time. To all these we are grateful, for they are real citizens of a community. There are others whose help is greatly needed in the warden service. There are gaps in every precinct for full coverage during night and daylight hours.

Of course, this means some sacrifice of time—an hour or two now and again. Those who are already doing their share, those who have already volunteered to join are all aware of this. Those people who "aren't interested" don't realize how seriously these men and women are taking their duty. One warden, after working twelve hours as a guard, wet through from a rain storm, came on duty to take his shift of work. He could easily have notified his chief that he just couldn't make it. But he felt a responsibility that he had guaranteed to fulfill, and he didn't let personal interests interfere. He isn't a young man. He is no hero to others, for only a handful of us know who he is. But he is satisfied with a job well done.

So far about 50 citizens have volunteered to attend the new warden school. We still need at least 50 more, and we can use as many as we get. Don't wait to be approached personally. Some one is certain to be missed. Send in your name to the civilian defense office, telephone 1361, or just come to the opening night of the warden's school on Monday, September 21, at 7:30, at the Memorial Hall library. The school will run six nights, September 21, 24, 28, October 1, 5, 8. A first aid course will follow immediately. Your service is needed.

This Sober Town

Putnam vs. Saltonstall! Now all that remains is for the Lowell's and Cabot's to start feuding.

That press agents have lost none of their vaunted imagination in the middle of a war is strikingly demonstrated, this week, in a release from Benson's Wild Animal farm in Nashua, N. H.

Mr. Benson, it seems, was indignantly denying, to newspapermen, that he was selling his entire stock to Barnum and Bailey, when "Elephant Betsy meandered along the midway, stopped, and gently nudged Mr. Benson's arm. Looking up, he asked, 'Betsy, how late will the weather permit us to keep our wild animal farm open this year?' Betsy squinted, wrinkled her trunk and trumpeted. Mr. Benson listened attentively, and then said to the newspapermen, 'Betsy has told me that we will have quite a warm Autumn, and that we will remain open every day until and including the holiday, October 12.'

We are willing to accept the fact that Mr. Benson can converse with elephants, and that Betsy is aware that October 12 is a holiday. But how the dickens did Betsy know that it is going to be a warm autumn?

We are going to introduce Betsy to our patriotic Guernsey cows. Perhaps they can form a literary society or something of the sort.

There was the man who wanted to be a star—"because stars scintillate at night."

Two local men, if their success at Old-Timers Day Sunday is any criterion, ought to go into the ice-cream vending business. They've always had the good humor; all they needed was the ice-cream to go with it, and Sunday they had a phenomenal sale during the last ten minutes or so of the day's business. Incidentally, both the gentlemen in question had also devoted a great deal of their time, previously to selling tags for the festivities.

You can call their sort of spirit cooperation, or zeal, or just plain friendliness. But if everybody in town put the same enthusiasm into their all-out effort, Andover wouldn't have to call in the rest of the country to help win this war.

Don't forget to go to Saturday's bond concert.

Myopic Andoverians would do well to stay off the streets these afternoons. The local school-children, of whom there seem to be millions, have taken up a new fad, and the results are, to say the least, startling. Large red rubber lips are being worn in the best juvenile circles now, and are evidently a popular commodity in the local stores catering to the two-penny a day clientele. The fake lips are very large and very red, and give their wearers the novel appearance of having chewed up a thermometer.

But it's OK with us, provided the younger generation doesn't get too lippy.

America—a place where they'll buy more bonds because Dottie Lamour is around than they'd buy when boys were giving their lives up on Bataan.

Andover saw more than one movie star this summer, thanks to Guy Palmerton, but not until Tuesday did it get a chance for a brief look at the celebrated sarong girl, Dorothy Lamour, Brooklyn-born queen of the South Seas. Miss Lamour, complete with an escort of state and town policemen, four soldiers and a jeep, was on her way back from Lawrence. The whole presidential entourage sounded their horns while passing through, and stopped to change cars at the Andover Inn.

Miss Lamour, we understand, was selling bonds for a time in Lawrence. And business . . . well, it was sensational . . . er . . . sensational.

Remember when beef was something we used to eat instead of do?

Dedicate New Worship Center This Sunday

During the summer months, the Union Congregational church of Ballardvale has carried on an extensive renovation program. A new oak floor has been laid in the vestry and adjoining rooms, and many other improvements have been made inside and outside the church, including the installation of new ceilings and the building of a new fence and trellis.

This Sunday morning at 10:00, a new memorial worship center for the beginners and primary departments of the Sunday school will be dedicated in the vestry, the gift of Donald and John McIntyre, in memory of their grandparents. The members of the various Sunday school departments and their parents, and all others who would desire to come, are cordially invited to be present at this service and the morning worship at 10:45.

Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, school minister at Phillips Academy, who has taken great interest in the renovation program of the church, will be a guest on this occasion. The public is invited to attend both services.

TENDERED FAREWELL PARTY

Peter Smith, who left Wednesday to begin his studies at the Holderness school, was tendered a farewell party Tuesday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Smith of Chestnut street. The group afterwards attended the performance for China-Russian War Relief in a body.

Those present were Audrey Nowell, Barbara Hill, Gladys Deyermund, Germaine Verrette, William West, George Collins, Gordon Robb and Peter Smith.

DEATHS

Mrs. Mary R. Eames, wife of Charles H. Eames, president of Lowell Textile institute and former local man, died Sunday night at her home on Blanchard avenue, Billerica. Mrs. Eames was a native of Billerica, and a descendant of one of its oldest families. She took a prominent part in the church and social activities of that town.

Mr. Eames graduated from Pynchard with the class of 1893, and has often returned here to take part in its Alumni Day activities.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Eames leaves a sister, Mrs. Harriet A. Harris of Clinton; and two brothers, Albert H. Richardson of Billerica and Alden B. Richardson of Arlington.

The funeral was held from the late home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the remains were cremated at Mount Auburn cemetery, Cambridge. Burial was in Billerica.

Mrs. Margaret B. Tate, teacher in the local public schools for a number of years, died Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Henshaw, in Pawtucket, R. I., where she had lived since last Spring. She was a graduate of Vassar college, and was first elected as a teacher in the local schools in 1933. She taught at the John Dove school for some years and supervised special classes in the Junior high school prior to her resignation just before the Christmas holidays last Winter. She had lived here at 37 Maple avenue.

Mrs. Tate came to Andover more than 20 years ago, and for a time conducted a tea room at the corner of Main and Morton streets. She also served for two years as dean of matrons at Simmons college.

Besides her daughter, she is survived by a son, Seymour, now an instructor at the U. S. Naval Training school at Newport, R. I.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Ella Ballou, 10 Moses Brown street, Providence.

Historical Society Plans Year's Program

An interesting year's program has been mapped out by the officers and program committee of the Andover Historical society. It will include an open house at the Benjamin Abbot house on Andover street on October 3, with a talk by Arthur Stone Dewing. At this annual meeting, there will be an opportunity to visit the Abbot-Baker house next door, as restored by Sidney P. White.

On December 3, a program, "Memorabilia of Memorial Hall library," will be presented at the library. On February 22, members will visit the archaeology building at Phillips Academy for a description of its exhibits by the staff. The semi-annual meeting will be held in April.

Mrs. Patrick F. Doyle of 137 North Main street, and her daughter, Miss Rosaleen Doyle, spent the week-end in Philadelphia, visiting there with Mrs. Doyle's son, Corporal Patrick J. Doyle, U. S. A., now stationed in Virginia with a medical unit.

News Of Old Andover

50 YEARS AGO. A "grand consolidated auction" was to be held at the Elm House stables. A small scarlet fever epidemic was just dying down. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bean left for Washington and the G. A. R. encampment. Barnett Rogers severed his connection with the Lawrence Hardware company consolidated with the James A. Treat firm to form the well-known Treat Hardware Supply Company. The Prohibitionists nominated Cyrus R. Lawrence for state senator. The Board of Registrars revised the check lists and found that Andover now had 1010 voters. New teachers at Phillips were C. H. Moore, W. R. Newton, A. A. Freeman, A. R. Benner. The local Republicans were to be addressed by Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, "the well-known congressman and likely successor of Senator Dawes." The People's Course announced its season program. Marcus Morton resigned as town Democratic chairman, and M. T. Welch was elected. Gentleman Jim Corbett threatened to make Mitchell put up or shut up. M. Pasteur, of France, announced that he was having some success with his anti-cholera vaccine.

25 YEARS AGO. The first draft contingent of 20 Andover boys entrained for Camp Devens. Dr. P. J. Look called the roll and introduced Rev. Frederick A. Wilson for a brief but stirring address. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith left for a vacation in California before resuming their work in France. Harold Cates, who left for army service, was presented a watch by Patrick Barrett and the other gardeners on the William M. Woods estate. Charles Dalton was working in a local drug store after school hours, besides managing Punchard's football team. Police Officer James Napier was on his vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene V. Lovely and family moved to Lupin road. Thomas D. Taylor of Frye village was now serving aboard the U.S.S. Delaware. Atty. and Mrs. Joseph L. Burns and son returned from a Hampton Beach vacation. F. A. Goodhue had been establishing a bank in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Jane Cowl was coming to Boston in "Lilac Time."

10 YEARS AGO. The enrollment of 1533 children in the public schools was the highest in the town's history. Beverly's and Lowell's crack drum corps, as well as the state champions from Marlboro, would take part in the Legion competition. Rev. Hugh P. O'Neill, O.S.A., was transferred from St. Augustine's parish to Rosemont, Pa. The Industrial league members, who had stopped their baseball activities recently, set about organizing a bowling group. A baseball game between teams captained by Sam Hibbert and Joseph Holland was to feature the outing of the Tyer Rubber foremen in Pelham, N. H. The K of C postponed its carnival to October. Both Margaret and Betty Buchan won prizes at a Hampton Beach swimming carnival. The Marx Brothers teamed up with Thelma Todd in "Horse Feathers." The Baptist church was to celebrate its centenary on October 10. The president of Wheaton college addressed Andover Grange. Walter E. Howe gave an interesting talk to a Sherrill club audience. Austin Basso's poultry took top honors at Topsfield Fair.

Abbot Academy Notes

Abbot Academy opens for its 114th session next Tuesday. On that day new resident girls are due. On the next day old resident girls and all day scholars register.

The enrollment for the year is excellent—approximately 170 students altogether, of whom 39 are day pupils. Because of the great demand the number of day pupils has gone beyond the usual maximum of 35.

There are a very few changes in the faculty this year; the following are the only new appointments:

Miss Anna Roth (Ph.D., Radcliffe) has been appointed to the History department in place of Miss Laura Smith for whom she substituted during the second semester of last year. Miss Smith is to teach at the Dover high school and will be able to live at her home in Medfield. Her many friends in Andover will miss her, especially the League of Women Voters, in which she has conducted most interesting discussion groups.

Mrs. America Alonzo is to have charge of the Spanish department. Mrs. Alonzo, a native of Montevideo, Uruguay, has had many years of teaching experience in the British school in Montevideo. She will take the place of Senorita Fortanals who left last spring to do war work.

Mrs. Alexander Calhoun, whose home is in Manila, will assist in the Mathematics department. Mrs. Calhoun, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, was a teacher of mathematics before her marriage, and of recent years has been on the school board in Manila, where her husband was in business and is now interned.

Rev. Bernard Drew of the Lawrence street Congregational church, Lawrence, is to be the teacher of Bible this year in place of Rev. Brainard F. Gibbons, formerly of the Church of the Good Shepherd, North Andover, who has been called to a new parish in Wisconsin.

Because of the shortage of domestic help, all students this year will not only take care of their own rooms as they have done hitherto, but will also serve in the dining-room. By means of a carefully worked out plan, no girl will have more than about 15 minutes work a day in the dining-room.

All day scholars, new and old, will gather in Abbot Hall on Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, when they will be welcomed by the Principal.

On Saturday evening, the usual Old-Girl New-Girl party will be held, when new girls will be the guests of honor.

On Sunday evening Miss Marguerite Hearsey will address the school at the first vesper service of the year at 7:30 P. M. in Abbot Hall.

RAISE SERVICEMEN'S FUND

At a recent business meeting of Court St. Monica 783, Catholic Daughters of America, it was voted to devote the September social to the raising of funds for the Andover Service Men's Fund Committee.

A series of house card parties will be held by the members beginning next Tuesday evening. The committee in charge is: Mrs. Hortense Coupe, chairman; Mrs. Margaret Morrissey and Mrs. Mary Reilly.

COURSE FOR WARDENS

A refresher course for local air raid wardens will be held at the Memorial auditorium on Monday and Thursday, October 5 and 8, at 7:30. All trained wardens active at the present time will be required to take this special course.

Plan To Organize New Junior Group

Sunday evening at 6:30 in the vestry of the South church, a group of boys and girls of Junior high school age will meet to organize a local branch of the Junior Pilgrim Fellowship. The meeting is called in answer to a request by many of the parents and the students themselves.

Several thousand young people in this age group throughout the state and country are planning Fellowship activities including discussions, parties and other programs. Those enrolling at the first meeting will be charter members and eligible to hold office, elections being held Sunday night. One of the main duties of the members will be to conduct their own meetings and to take active part in the discussions.

The policy is being introduced by the Legion at the present time at the request of the Andover Service Club. Also, George Wilcox, one of the inductees, a Legion member who has been sergeant of its color guard for the past few years, will lead the guard for the last time on this occasion.

The parade is scheduled to start at 10:00 sharp, and the line of march will be directly from the town hall to the railroad station, where the inductees will take the 10:25 train for Boston.

Guy B. Howe, T. Augustine Faragher and Frank P. Markey are in charge of arrangements.

Bands For Bonds —Saturday Afternoon

You can't beat a band to beat the bunds by bartering bonds in an alliterate—or illiterate—way to express the present war stamp selling campaign by the local committee. Last Saturday afternoon, the Legion auxiliary found the Legion Junior bugle and drum corps quite a help in selling a large amount of war stamps to downtown shoppers.

This Saturday afternoon at 5:00, the popular Clan MacPherson pipe band of Lawrence will play at the town hall, when stamps will be sold by the British Empire War Veterans. The Kitties have always gotten a good reception in their appearances here, and sales of Uncle Sam's securities ought to be quite brisk.

Mrs. Edwin E. Perry of High street, Ballardvale, has just returned from Hastings, Mich., where she has been spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Robert L. Lewis and family.

Old-Timers Provide Both Fun And Funds

Old-Timers Day, last Sunday afternoon at the playstead, got the ball rolling in the proper fashion for the Andover Servicemen's Fund. A large audience witnessed such events as baseball throws, an old-timers game between the Elks and the Royals, walking and relay races and a tug-of-war.

Winners of the individual contests were Harold Wennik in the base-circling contest, in 17 3-4 seconds; J. Everett Collins in the baseball throw, scoring the only clean hit on the target at home plate; Robert Burnham in distance throwing; Lafayette Stickney in the walking race; Drummond Bisset, James Sheard, William Ferguson and Stanley Palenski in the relay base-circling contest. The town employees defeating the Shawsheen mill in the tug-of-war included Eugene Zalla, George F. Dufton, John Cole, Charles Muller, Joseph A. Davis, Walter Baker, David L. Nicoll and William J. Stewart. Prizes of war savings stamps went to all winning teams and individuals.

Refreshments were sold at a brisk rate at the field stands, the weather being very favorable. Harold Wennik served as chairman of the day's program; William A. Doherty as umpire in the baseball game; Alexander Duke refereed the tug-of-war; Charles McCollum, the ball throwing contests and William J. Riley, the walking and relay races. John M. Erving acted as announcer over a loud-speaker system supplied by Harold Phinney.

Committee Elects New Teacher-Coach

The school committee this week appointed Kenneth K. McKiniry of Portland, Me., as physical education teacher for boys in the public schools, at a salary of $2200 per year. Mr. McKiniry will take over his new duties next week, as Anton Kishon, who has been filling in while the vacancy existed, will begin teaching at Phillips academy then.

Mr. McKiniry attended Deering high school in Portland and Hebron academy, and holds his B.S. in Ed. degree from the University of New Hampshire. There he played three years on the varsity football team and guard on the basketball team. Mr. McKiniry is married, and has three children.

He has had six years of teaching and coaching experience. He was a teacher-coach at Biddeford (Maine) high school and at the Babylon high school, Long Island, N. Y., where he had expected to return this year. At Punchard, he will be assistant coach of football and head coach of basketball.

He will take the position formerly assigned to Howard Simons, who notified the committee last week that he did not feel he should take the position, since he had received word that he will be inducted in December. The post had previously been held by Lieut. Donald D. Dunn, U.S.N.R., and Carl Willgoose.

Chart Will Attend Army Field School

First Lieut. Stanley G. Chart, U. S. A., a practicing physician here for several years before entering the army medical corps, will leave Fort Jackson, S.C., the latter part of September to attend a one-month course at the Medical Field Service school at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. On completion of this training, he will return to his duties with the 105th medical battalion at Fort Jackson.
